

Chapter 9: Raaj Vidyaa Raaj Guhya Yoga – Yoga of Sovereign Knowledge and Sovereign Mystery

This chapter is known as Rajvidya Rajguhya yoga or Yoga of Sovereign Knowledge and Sovereign mystery. Rajvidya means the most superior knowledge. Rajguhya means the most secretive knowledge. This knowledge is for those devotees who do not have any flaws in them. It is not for those devotees who act in a smart way. This knowledge is of a very high level and is considered to be the best.

This knowledge gives instant results and does not make you wait forever. This knowledge is for the saints not for sinners. This knowledge is very easy and can never be destroyed. Only the person with full faith can gain and utilize it.

Raj Vidya is for Raja (king). It is not for fools. The word Raja implies, father whose sons are praja (subjects). The husband is the Raja while the wife is the praja. The master of the house is the Raja while his servant is the praja. Rashtrapati is Raja then all the people are praja. In this body, the soul is the Raja while the body and organs are the praja. Of the senses the Mind is the Raja and other senses are praja. In the same way the ruler of this world the Supersoul is the Raja and all the rest are praja. The Lord takes care of us, as we are His children. The qualities He has as a father are described in this chapter. These should be emulated by an individual as a father, as a husband and as a master of the house.

A thousand waves crop up in the ocean but there is only one ocean. There may be many children to a father but there is only one father. A country has many residents but there is only one king. In the same way there can be many souls but there is only one God. There cannot be twenty-five Gods.

When the soul is pure then the body will also follow the suit. The peace in the soul will be reflected as peace in the human body.
